

The Luminous Gospels: Thomas, Mary Magdalene, and Philip

January 18 – 21, 2018

"Split a piece of wood and there I am, Lift up the stone and you will find me there"
~Gospel of Thomas

The timelessness and immediacy of the Wisdom teachings of Jesus invite us to the unitive Heart. These early Christian gospels open us directly to the alchemy of transformation. Join us for this 4-day (3-night) retreat as we dive into a dynamic exploration of these texts and experience how they can nourish us in times of change.

All will be held within a contemplative rhythm of silent prayer, chanting, lectio divina, conscious work and contemplative movement. As an opportunity to deepen inner life within a Wisdom community of support, people of all spiritual traditions (or none) are welcome.

The Reverend Matthew Wright is an Episcopal priest and Wisdom tradition retreat leader who has been working to bring forward the depth and brilliance of this stream within the wider context of inter-spiritual dialogue. His presence and vast storehouse of knowledge express a vibrant and living connection with the tradition, as witnessed in his new blog A Waking Heart. Matthew and his wife, Yanick, live alongside the brothers of Holy Cross Monastery.

Retreat begins: Thursday, January 18th at 5:30pm with a light supper.*

Retreat ends: Sunday, January 21st at 2:00pm after lunch.*

Cost: All are welcome at Hallelujah Farm. We are grateful for your support in the amount you can afford. As a guideline, the suggested contribution for this retreat is $300, which includes a $50 deposit.*

Venue: Guests receive hospitality from Sandy & Roger Daly of beautiful Hallelujah Farm. Accommodations are in shared double rooms. Single rooms may be available upon request.*

Information & Registration: Contact Laura Ruth at laurampruth@gmail.com.*

*In order to hold your place, the following deposit is requested:
$50 due by January 4th.*

This retreat is made possible by a generous grant from the Narthex Foundation.